

Music provision in primary schools

“The Music House for Children has provided The Good Shepherd RC primary school with excellent music teachers ranging from violin to classroom music, choir leaders, clarinet and flute tutors.”

– Cathy Doogan, Head teacher at Good Shepherd RC Primary School

The Music House for Children provides trained music teachers and workshop leaders to support classroom teaching, group instrumental teaching, singing clubs and one-off musical workshops for primary schools. All music teachers are fully referenced checked with police checks (CRB) completed and chosen for their skills in working with children. All freelance teachers are contracted to The Music House for Children.
